WELCOME TO NIPO

TWO CULTURES. ONE TABLE.

NIPO takes its name from the Nipo-Brasileiro community of São Paulo, shaped by more than a century of Japanese migration to Brazil. Today, Brazil is home to the largest Japanese community outside Japan, with São Paulo at the heart of that story.

From that shared heritage comes a distinctive meeting of cultures: Japanese precision, craft and restraint alongside Brazilian warmth, generosity and hospitality.

At NIPO, those influences come together through sushi, robata, bold flavours and dishes made for sharing.
